About Expert Review of Cardiovascular Therapy

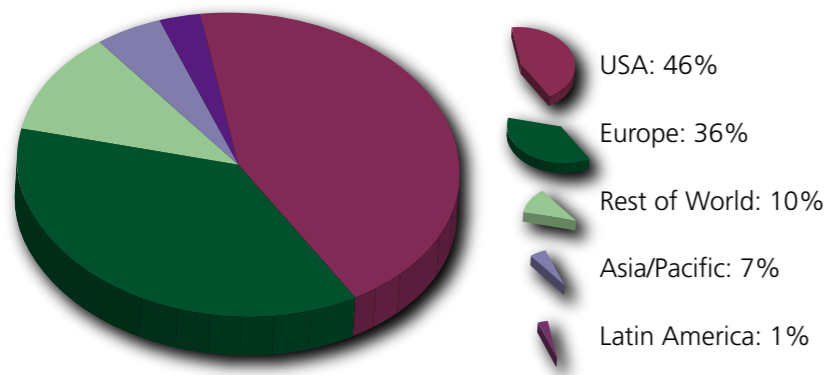

The primary literature associated with new and emerging approaches to therapy, diagnosis and outcomes research in cardiovascular healthcare delivery has grown exponentially. It is no longer feasible for an individual to track and analyze all of these advances. Expert Review of Cardiovascular Therapy provide the solution through expert analysis and commentary, focussing on the clinical and economic performance of new therapeutic and diagnostic modalities.

Articles focus on the following key areas:

- Overviews of specific therapeutic areas, highlighting optimal therapy
- Performance and benefits of newly approved cardiovascular therapeutic agents
- Prospects for new therapies
- Psychosocial aspects
- Epidemiologic studies and trends
- New diagnostic approaches, screening and patient stratification
- Pharmacoeconomics and outcomes research
